SCRIPTURE

I. JESUS AND THE PASSOVER LUKE 22:7-18

- A. Jesus is fulfilling the Torah; He is Torah observant
- B. This particular Passover was special to Him
- C. It had been arranged ahead of time
- D. It has a past, present and future fulfillment
- E. It is the last sign before the Exodus begins

II. THE FIRST PASSOVER EXODUS 11-13

- A. Israel trapped in a gradual, surprising, tyrannical enslavement
  1. Bodily, through forced labor
  2. Emotionally, through daily defeat and discouragement until it became routine; bent with helplessness to do anything about it
  3. Intellectually, as an oppressed people without the privilege of further education
  4. Spiritually, surrounded by idolatry and false historical narratives; no personal contact with the God of their fathers; living only with the memory of an oral tradition about the interaction of God with the patriarchs; a ray of hope in remembering the promises given by God to Abraham first and then the other patriarchs; no new revelation left them wondering whether the promises, were true or just repeated fantasies; play along to survive

- B. Enter Moses with the Word of God and the power to back it up*
- 1. Moses brought a message of delivery*
  - 2. Confrontation with Pharaoh and 9 plagues had created an enormous tension but no delivery*
  - 3. God declares the 10th sign will be the last and will be the redeeming one*
  - 4. The 10th sign will be the death of the firstborn of every family in Egypt of human and beast UNLESS...*
    - a. God gave Israel specific instructions to be spared from God’s judgment and set free to begin a new life with Him*
    - b. He gave them a new calendar with appointed times with which to serve Him*
    - c. On the 10th of the month they were to bring a lamb or a goat kid to their home*
    - d. On the 14th of the month at evening they were to kill the lamb, put its blood in a bowl and, using a bundle of hyssop, apply it to the outside of the door frame*
    - e. They were then to roast the lamb, innards and all, over the fire and eat it with bitter herbs, quickly while fully dressed*
    - f. This same day would be a 7 day observation eating only unleavened bread; by strictest observation no leaven could be eaten or present for those 7 days*
  - 5. Death would “pass over” them and spare them*
