

ZECHARIAH
Bronze Mountains and Four Chariots
Zechariah 6:1-8

Mac Williams, Pastor
April 5, 2020

1. The Lord, in His _____, puts great emphasis on His relationship with His people.

2. The Lord is sovereign over all and expresses His providential care over all things to the _____ of His people.

a. The purpose and decrees of God are immovably _____ by His own power and wisdom.

b. God's providence is multifaceted and so it addresses every aspect of His _____ and every aspect of life.

c. The angels of God stand _____ to carry out the Lord's every command.

"God has in operation _____ species of agency, human and angelic, animate and inanimate, needful for the accomplishment of His purposes, and will send them forth at the proper time." - T. V. Moore

d. The _____ of the people of God will certainly be punished by Him for their sin against His people.

e. The angels of God eagerly _____ all the earth at His direction.

"All things are governed by Thee, and nothing takes place except through Thy will, so that in the greatest confusions we may always clearly see Thine hand, and that Thy counsel is altogether right, and perfectly and singularly wise and just; and may we ever call upon Thee, and flee to this port." - John Calvin