

Resurrection: The 'End' of Life

1

The Search for Significance

- What must be true about the world in order for our lives to have genuine significance?
 - There must be an objective end within which our lives are situated
 - The end must fulfill us as creatures
 - The end must be achievable
 - Our experience of the end must be unending

- Easter Sunday's Significance for our Significance

2