

Wildwood Baptist Church

Easter—April 8, 2012

“Discover Joy”

John 16: 19-24

v. 20b—“You will grieve, but your grief will turn to joy.”

What about the pain of disappointment?

What about the pain of disillusionment?

What about the pain of separation?

Joy comes as a result of the pain He suffered for us.

v. 19b—“In a little while you will see me no more, and then after a little while you will see me.”

The secret for allowing pain to turn to joy is trust in Jesus and patience.

He’s alive. He is risen. He is risen from the dead.

Hebrews 12: 2

Wildwood Baptist Church

Easter—April 8, 2012

“Discover Joy”

John 16: 19-24

v. 20b—“You will grieve, but your grief will turn to joy.”

What about the pain of disappointment?

What about the pain of disillusionment?

What about the pain of separation?

Joy comes as a result of the pain He suffered for us.

v. 19b—“In a little while you will see me no more, and then after a little while you will see me.”

The secret for allowing pain to turn to joy is trust in Jesus and patience.

He’s alive. He is risen. He is risen from the dead.

Hebrews 12: 2

