The Heidelberg Catechism states that, in the fifth commandment, God requires “that I show all love, honor, and faithfulness to my father and mother....”

On the Cross we see the unique synergism of this love, honor, and faithfulness in the person of Christ. No one would have expected Him to shower concern upon Mary while He, the Son of Man, was experiencing agony beyond words. The emotional and physical pain on the cross were unfathomable, and yet Jesus shows His love and concern for Mary by asking John to protect and provide for His mother. Even as He was suffering as our substitute He is serving as our Model in the honoring of His mother.
