Five Reflections from verses 1-6 of Ephesians 4

1. Reflect on your walk and evaluate if Scripture is working to cultivate in you a love for unity
2. Reflect on your attitude and evaluate if the Spirit is producing the fruit of humility, gentleness, and patience
3. Reflect on your actions and evaluate if the saints see your loving longsuffering
4. Reflect on your aspirations and evaluate if the church's unity is vital to your life
5. Reflect on your convictions, and evaluate if your belief about unity is in harmony with the triune God

Genuine unity is fellowship with the triune God
