

SONG 3: DIAMONDS & COLOGNE

Song 1:9 – 2:2

- I. He enhances her beauty: _____ : v9-11
What's with the horse comparison?!

Man's role: to appreciate & enhance his woman's beauty (physical & spiritual)

So Christ with His Bride: Eph 5:25-27

- II. She delights in his aroma: _____ : v12-14

Woman's role: to appreciate and affirm his worth

So Christ is a fragrant sacrifice for us: Eph 5:2

As Mary worshipped with her nard (John 12:3), so we offer fragrant offerings of love to Him (eg. Phil 4:18)

- III. They admire one another openly: _____ : 1:15 – 2:2

He: you are beautiful and your eyes soft as doves

She: you are handsome & charming; what a romantic place!

He: yes, the cedars & junipers are like the beams of our home one day

She: O, I am just a simple flower

He: O no, you are precious and unique!

So what

1. When is the last time you marrieds told your spouse of her/his attractiveness to you?
2. Do you see His changing you as loving enhancement?
3. Do you savor His fragrance as your delight?
