

ISAIAH
Rebuilding the Ruins
Isaiah 61:4-11

Mac Williams, Pastor
May 14, 2017

1. The glorious result of Christ transforming people, who were ruined by sin and misery into _____ of righteousness, is the restoration of a ruined world.

- a. The Lord promises to _____ up His Church in the midst of the devastation that sin causes.
- b. The Lord will use _____, who were formerly strangers to the covenants of promise, to build His Church; but both Jewish and Gentile Christians will serve as God's royal priesthood.
- c. In the midst of the _____ and humiliation that is often endured in life, the Lord blesses His people with every spiritual blessing ensuring an everlasting joy.
- d. Those whom the Lord transforms by the gospel of Christ, will be _____ by the fruit that is evident in their life.

2. The Lord's promise to restore this world ruined by sin is reason for heartfelt _____ by His Church.

- a. The Church _____ in the glorious salvation and righteousness that has been so graciously given to them by the Lord.
- b. The Church rejoices in the mutual joy that is _____ between Christ and His Church.
- c. The Church rejoices in the absolute certainty that all of these _____ of God will be fulfilled.