

Finding Our Hiding

Place in God

Psalm 61:1-8

A stone castle with a tower and a gabled roof sits atop a hill. The scene is dimly lit, suggesting dusk or dawn, with a dark sky and silhouetted trees in the foreground. The text 'Are you being pursued?' is overlaid in white, with 'pursued?' in a larger, bolder font.

Are you being pursued?

A stone castle tower with a conical roof, situated on a hillside. The scene is dimly lit, suggesting dusk or dawn, with the sky and surrounding trees in silhouette. The tower is the central focus, with its stone texture and architectural details visible.

David calls for help (vs. 1-2)

He visualizes
God (vs. 3-4)

He remembers
God's covenant
(vs. 5-7)

A stone castle with multiple towers and a central spire, situated on a hillside. The scene is dimly lit, suggesting dusk or dawn, with a dark sky and silhouetted trees in the background. The castle's stone walls and windows are visible, though somewhat faded by the low light.

He plans on praising God
(v. 8)
