1. The Lord has given His Word as the light that is needed for one to make their way through a world that is filled with moral darkness.

- a. All of Scripture, in its literary _____, gives light in both big picture understanding and the focused choices of everyday life.
- b. God's righteous ordinances are so vital to life that believers should make whole hearted commitments to walk in _____ and obedience to God's Word.

2. In this world filled with moral darkness, believers will often find themselves living out their faith in the midst of great afflictions and dangerous threats.

- a. Trials are to be expected and are actually necessary to the growth and maturity of believers, but the Lord can be trusted to give quickening _____ so that they can be endured.

- b. In the midst of great and even dangerous trials believers are called to give plentiful praise to the Lord and trust Him to _____ them as they press forward.

*"The man who carries his _____ in his hand, should carry the Law in his heart."
- Graham Scroggie*

- c. In a dark world, there will be those who seek to deceptively _____ the life or the faith of believers so it is vital that one stay on the Lord's path.

3. The Lord enables His children to have a remarkable contentment in the challenge of a dark world which enables them to persevere in faith to the end.

- a. The testimonies of the Lord bring a heartfelt _____ to those who recognize what a valuable inheritance they are.
- b. By God's grace, believers recognize the privilege they have in His Word and commit themselves to obey His statutes from their _____.
