

WELCOME TO THE WORSHIP OF GOD

We extend a special welcome to our visitors! Please join us as we seek to glorify God in worship and our enjoyment of the blessed Sabbath Day of rest as Christ's people. You can learn more about us at www.dallasrpc.org. Follow us on Facebook for up-to-date information and events: www.facebook.com/DallasRPCNA. If you desire to be added to the church's email list, please email the pastor. The congregation hosts a lunch every Lord's Day between services. We welcome all our visitors to join us, as there is plenty of food to share! (Acts 2:46-47). If you have brought your tithe or an offering today, please deposit it in the black box next to the psalter rack.

DALLAS REFORMED PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

That in all things He might have the preeminence

A congregation of the Reformed Presbyterian Church of North America (RPCNA)

I will mention the lovingkindnesses of the LORD, and the praises of the LORD, According to all that the LORD hath bestowed on us, And the great goodness toward the house of Israel, Which he hath bestowed on them according to his mercies, And according to the multitude of his lovingkindnesses. For he said, Surely they are my people, Children that will not lie: So he was their Saviour. In all their affliction he was afflicted, And the angel of his presence saved them: In his love and in his pity he redeemed them; And he bare them, and carried them all the days of old.

ISAIAH 63:7-9

SUM OF SAVING KNOWLEDGE: THE PRACTICAL USE

Hence let the penitent, desiring to believe, reason thus: "What doth suffice to convince all the elect in the world of the greatness of the sin of not believing in Christ, or refusing to flee to him for relief from sins done against the law, and from wrath due thereto; and what sufficeth to convince them that righteousness and eternal life is to be had by faith in Jesus Christ, or by consenting to the covenant of grace in him: and what sufficeth to convince them of judgment to be exercised by Christ, for destroying the works of the devil in a man, and sanctifying and saving all that believe in him, may suffice to convince me also: "But what the Spirit hath said, in these or other like scriptures, sufficeth to convince the elect world of the foresaid sin, and righteousness, and judgment: "Therefore what the Spirit hath said, in these and other like scriptures, serveth to convince me thereof also." Whereupon let the penitent desiring to believe take with him words, and say heartily to the Lord, Seeing thou sayest Seek ye my face; my soul answereth unto thee, Thy face, Lord, will I seek. I have hearkened unto the offer of an everlasting covenant of all saving mercies to be had in Christ, and I do heartily embrace thy offer. Lord, let it be a bargain; Lord, I believe; help my unbelief: Behold, I give myself to thee, to serve thee in all things for ever; and I hope thy right hand shall save me: the Lord will perfect that which concerneth me; thy mercy, O Lord, endureth for ever; forsake not the works of thine own hands. Thus may a man be made an unfeigned believer in Christ.

- II. Hearing preaching as an act of worship

LARGER CATECHISM Q. 160

WHAT IS REQUIRED OF THOSE THAT HEAR THE WORD PREACHED?

A. It is required of those that hear the word preached, that they attend upon it with diligence, preparation, and prayer; examine what they hear by the scriptures; receive the truth with faith, love, meekness, and readiness of mind, as the word of God; meditate, and confer of it; hide it in their hearts, and bring forth the fruit of it in their lives.

WESTMINSTER DIRECTORY OF PUBLIC WORSHIP

PREACHING of the word, being the power of God unto salvation, and one of the greatest and most excellent works belonging to the ministry of the gospel, should be so performed, that the workman need not be ashamed, but may save himself, and those that hear him.
