

Introduction

- I. If we are going to teach humility to our children, as parents we must be learning humility.
- II. The text sets before us the better way of humility - humility is better than pride.

Proverbs for Parenting:
(9) Teaching the Better Way of Humility

I. Teaching What

A. As parents we are to teach our children that the root of many of their sins is pride.

B. Positively, we are to teach them that the better way is humility, in which we see ourselves as we really are.

II. Teaching How

A. We teach our children humility by teaching them about the greatness of God (Ps. 145)

B. Second, we must teach as those who have been and are humbled by the greatness and majesty of God. This is the the requirement for godly, covenant parenting.

III. Teaching the Blessings

A. The result, end, destination of pride is a fall and destruction.

B. But there is a blessing for walking in humility.
