1. Those who love the Lord and His Word, have a holy hatred for all that dishonors their Lord.

“Hatred=Great dislike or aversion; hate; enmity. Hatred is an aversion to _____.”
- Noah Webster, 1828 Dictionary

- a. God gives believers a hatred for what is hypocritical and _____-hearted because He has also given them a love for His holy law.
- b. Living in the midst of so many who embrace things that dishonor the Lord leads believers to trust in the Lord as their shelter and _____.
- c. Believers recognize that in order to actively follow God’s commandments in their life, their closest friends cannot be people who pursue what is _____.

2. When there is so much that dishonors the Lord around them, believers are well aware of their weaknesses and their need for the Lord to actively sustain them.

- a. Believers trust in the Lord to _____ their life and grant them assurance that they can trust the promises of His Word.
- b. Believers know that they can never honor the Lord without His divine _____ every single day.

3. Believers are helped with their perspective on life when they remember that since God is just, there are both present and eternal consequences for sin.

- a. The truth is that all who turn aside from God’s ways are rejected by the Lord. They are only _____ themselves. So walk with the Lord in integrity.
- b. If they will not repent, God will cast aside the wicked of the earth like rubbish. So grow in your _____ for His testimonies.
- c. Sober thought on the certain judgments of God cause even believers to _____. So grow in the fear of the Lord.

“Cherish that holy reverential fear of the character and judgments of God, which will form your most effectual _____ from presumptuous sins.”
- Charles Bridges
