

The LORD is my SHEPHERD

We are like sheep who need a shepherd

There is more than one shepherd

A shepherd in a hat and light-colored shirt stands in a grassy field, looking over a large flock of sheep. The background features rolling green hills and mountains under a soft, hazy sky. The text is overlaid in white, sans-serif font.

My people have been lost sheep.
Their shepherds have led them astray; they have turned them away on the mountains.

Jeremiah 50:6

A shepherd in a light-colored shirt and dark pants stands in a grassy field, looking over a large flock of sheep. The sheep are mostly white and are grazing or resting. In the background, there is a dense forest of evergreen trees on a hillside. The overall scene is peaceful and rural.

Woe to the shepherds of Israel who feed themselves!
Should not the shepherds
feed the flocks?

Ezekiel 34:2

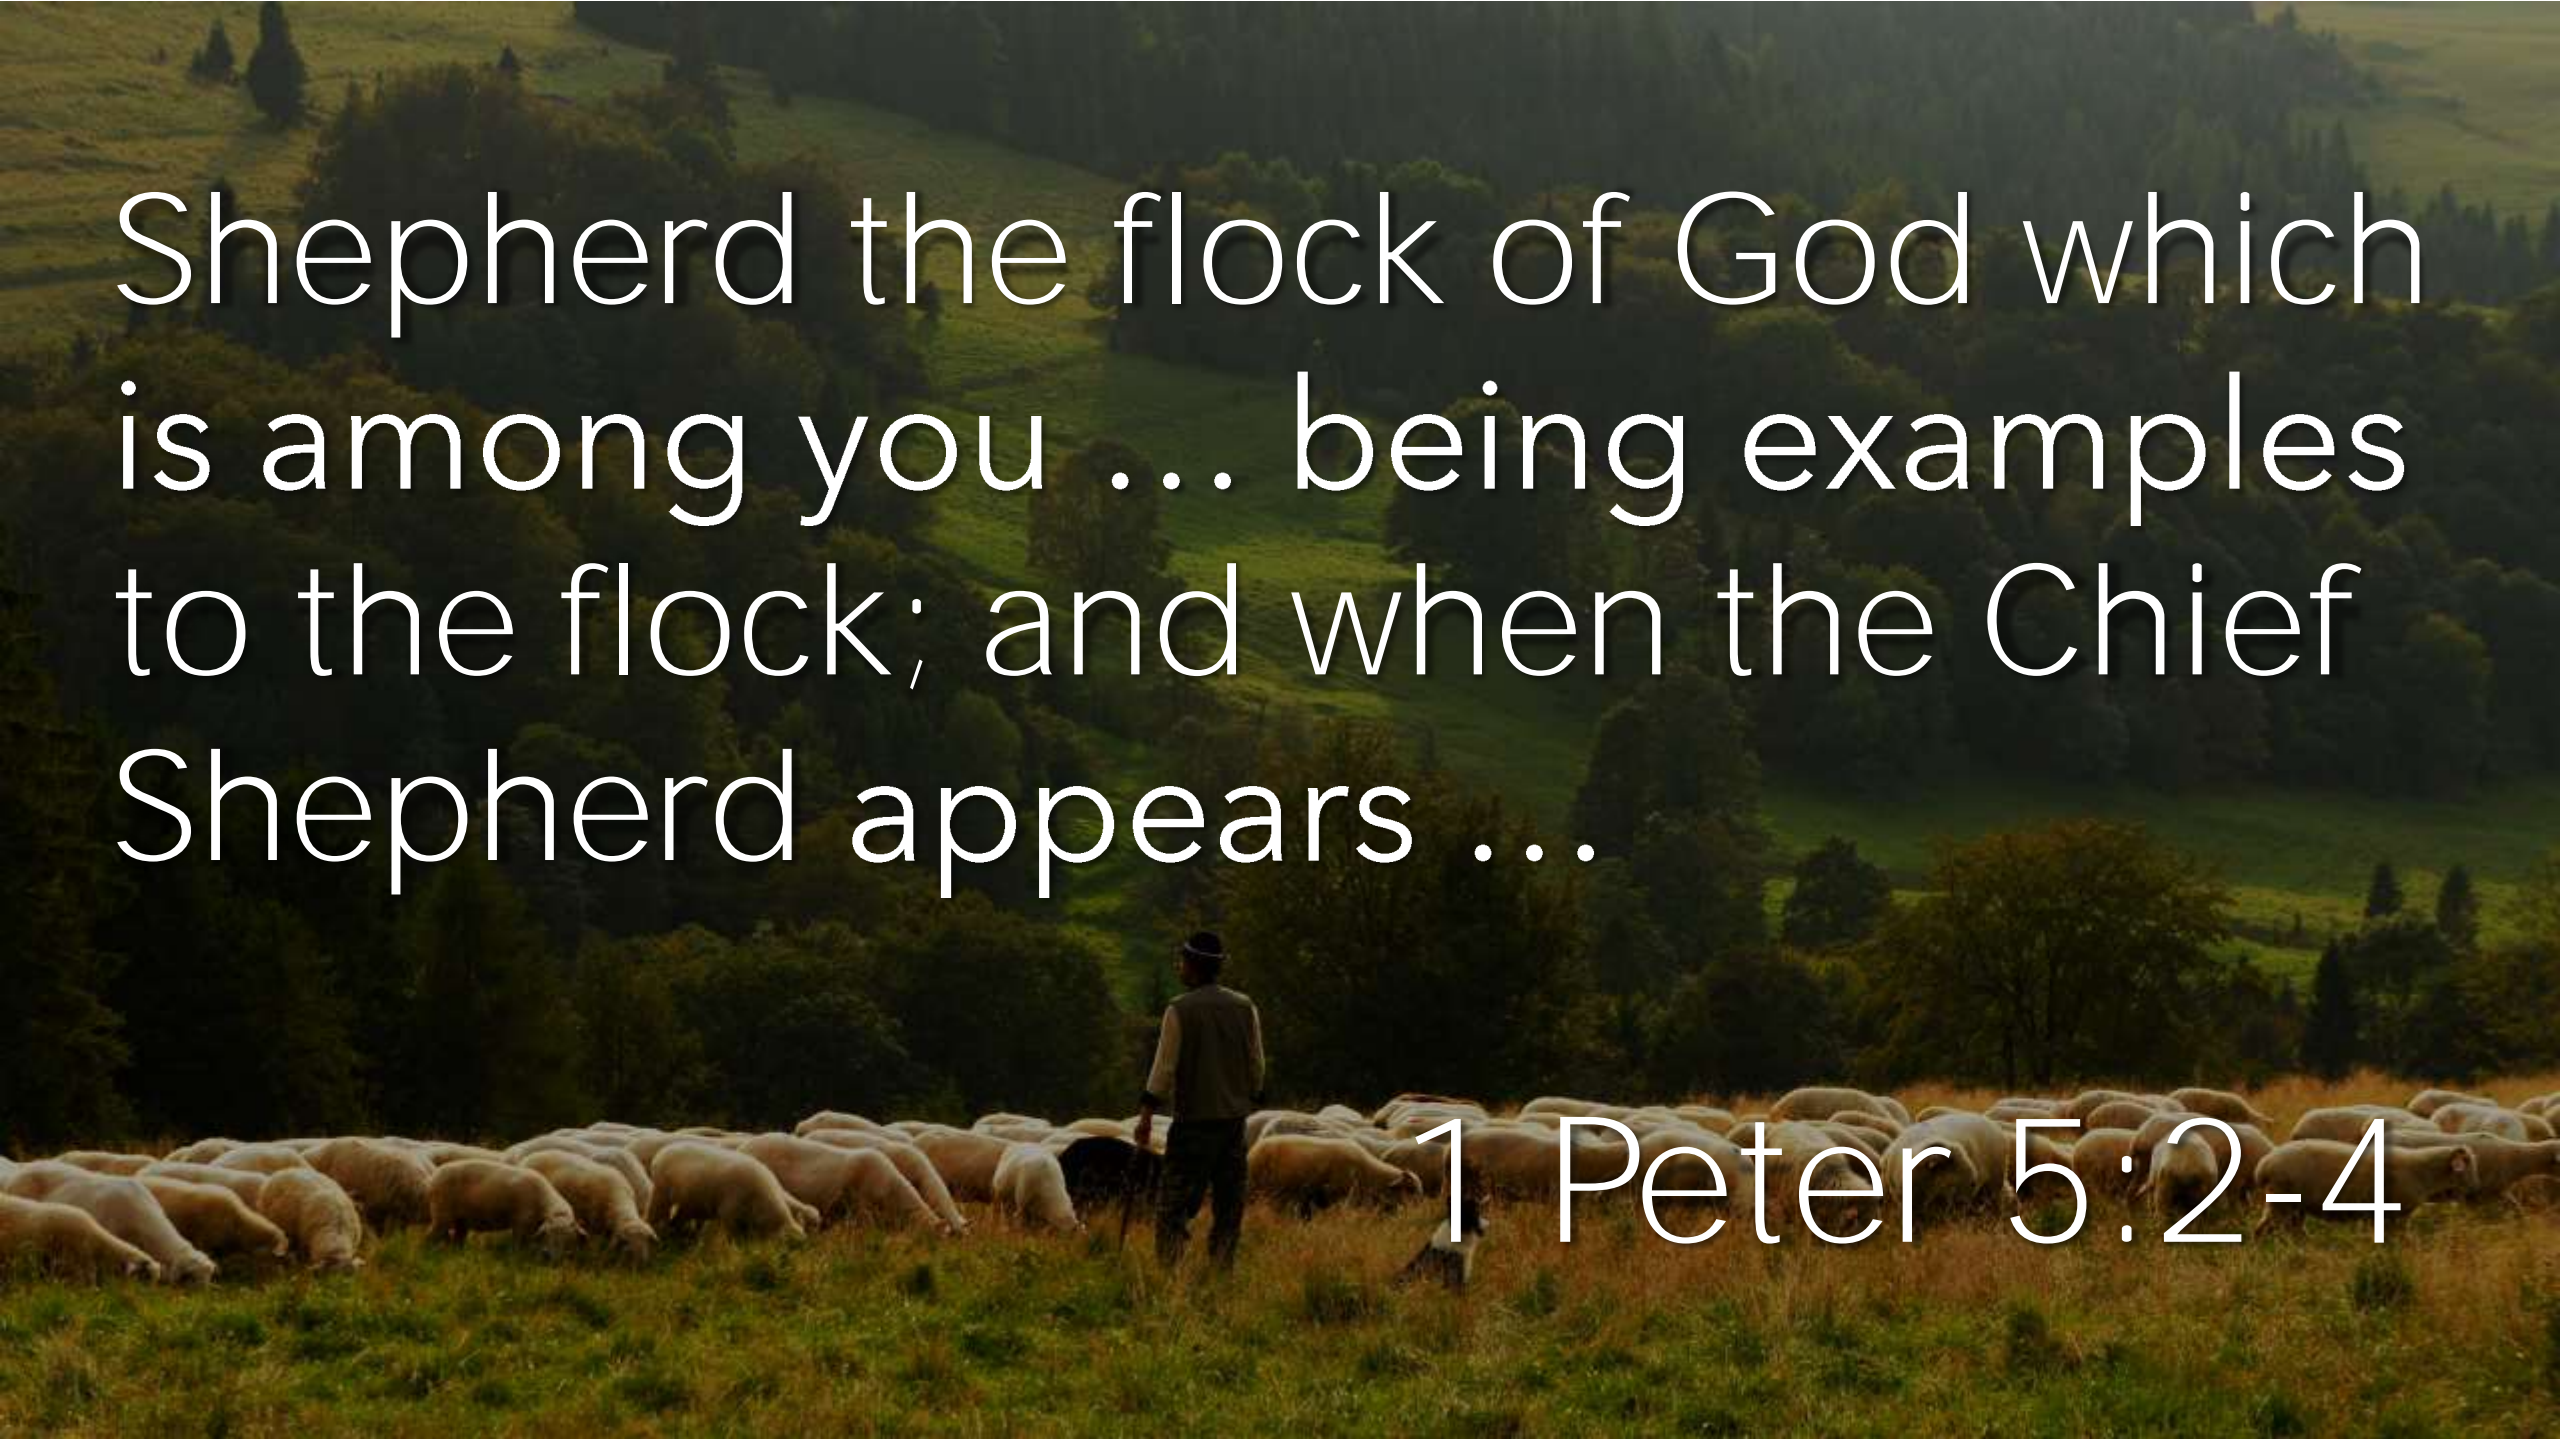

A shepherd in a hat and light-colored shirt stands in a grassy field, looking over a large flock of sheep. The background features rolling green hills and a dense forest of evergreen trees under a soft, hazy sky.

Like sheep they are laid in the grave; death shall feed on them.

Psalm 49:14

Shepherd the flock of God which is among you ... being examples to the flock; and when the Chief Shepherd appears ...

1 Peter 5:2-4

Our shepherd is the Lord

The Lord meets all our needs

A mark of Christian maturity is that you depend upon the Lord more - not less
