1. The Lord uses the Apostle _____ to encourage believers in the basics of the Christian faith and to prepare them to endure trials in godly ways.

2. Peter eloquently sums up the challenging and remarkable truth about the great blessing there is in being a _____.
  - a. Christians have a sure and certain eternal citizenship, but they are also the people of God in the _____ where He has placed them.

  - b. Christians see the Lord's favor in the fact that each one is _____ by God the Father according to His eternal purpose.

  - c. Christians see the Lord's favor in the fact that God the Spirit will set them apart and _____ them to receive the salvation for which they have been chosen.

d. Christians see the Lord's favor in the fact that God the Son, Jesus Christ, has _____ their salvation with His blood.

1) All believers are in a new _____ relationship with God through Christ.

2) All believers are called to _____ Jesus Christ as their Lord.

3. Peter transforms the traditional _____ into a declaration of God's favor toward those who are in Christ.

a. The Triune God grants His people _____ in the fullest measure.

"Whatever measure of this allowance any of them have received, there is still _____ of it to be had, and still more of it will be given to them." - Alexander Nisbet

b. The Triune God grants His people an inner wholeness that comes from true _____ with Him.
