"It is a sweet meditation to think . . . that though we understand not one another, yet we have one loving and living Father that understands all our meanings; and so the different languages and dialects of the members of his body make no confusion in heaven, but meet together in his heart and affection, and are one perfume, one incense, sent up from the whole catholic [i.e., universal] Church which is here scattered on the earth."

Hugh Binning (17th century Scottish Presbyterian an Covenanter)

OUR CHURCH

We are a congregation of the Free Church of Scotland (Continuing), which has a presbytery in North America. The Free Church traces its historical roots back to the Protestant Reformation in Scotland, which began in 1560. The same biblical truths and spiritual identity have been maintained to the present day. Our doctrinal standards are the original 17th century version of the Westminster Confession of Faith and Larger and Shorter Catechisms. Further detailed information about our doctrine, worship, government, and practice are available on the book table and in the church library.
