

ISAIAH
Vengeance and Lovingkindness
Isaiah 63:1-14

Mac Williams, Pastor
May 28, 2017

1. God is mighty to save because He is a God of

_____.

- a. God is the Savior of His people, therefore He delivers them from their _____ no matter how strong or hostile they may be.

“God will punish all wicked men and enemies of the Church in such a manner as to show that the Church is the object of His care.” - John Calvin

- b. The vengeance of God toward His enemies in all ages and in the last day _____ Him for His great majesty and righteousness.

2. God redeems His people from their sin because He is a God of _____.

- a. The Lord’s lovingkindnesses are present in great _____.

- b. It is by the Lord’s lovingkindness that He chooses His people and _____ them.

- c. Because of the Lord’s lovingkindness He _____ the suffering of His people as His own suffering and bears them up in their weakness.

- d. The people of God must not take His lovingkindness for granted by sinfully _____ against Him.

- e. The people of God should regularly remember God’s _____ lovingkindnesses to them to help them trust Him in the present.