QUOTE

"Little as I know of Christ - and it is my dreadful sin and shame that I know so little of him - I would not exchange the learning of one hour's fellowship with Christ for all the liberal learning in the ten thousand universities, during ten thousand ages, even though angels were to be my teachers."

By: John Brown of Haddington (18th century Scottish Presbyterian theologian).

We encourage each one to quietly prepare his heart for worship before the beginning of each worship service, as this befits the glory of the God with whom we meet.

There is a break following the Morning Worship Service where a meal is served. We cordially invite our visitors to join us in this opportunity for Christian fellowship and spiritual conversation.

Offerings are collected on the literature table.

OUR CHURCH

We are a congregation of the Free Church of Scotland (Continuing), which has a presbytery in North America. The Free Church traces its historical roots back to the Protestant Reformation in Scotland, which began in 1560. The same biblical truths and spiritual identity have been maintained to the present day. Our doctrinal standards are the original 17th century version of the Westminster Confession of Faith, the Westminster Larger Catechism and the Westminster Shorter Catechism. Further detailed information about our doctrine, worship, government, and practice is available on the book table and in the Church library.
