Consider & Discuss (Be Transformed!)

- What new insights about the Spirit does Jesus surface in this passage?
- Describe the peace that Jesus here promises His disciples, what is it and what isn't it?
- What is the significance of peace in the broad strokes of redemptive history?
- What, would context argue, is the relationship between the Holy Spirit and the peace Jesus was giving?
- In what sense was Jesus going away from His disciples; and in what sense was He coming to them? (28)
- How is Jesus going away from disciples in death a salvation historical triumph?
- What do we understand about Jesus' disciples love for Him at the time of this passage?
- What do we understand about Jesus' love for His Father?
- Why was Jesus concerned for the world to know of His love for His Father?
- Where is God's triumph in Jesus death?
- Community Group Discussion: Contrast the disciples' love for Jesus and Jesus' love for God. What was the source of each? What motivated each? How did each manifest itself? What was the fruit of each? How do we grow out of disciple-like love for Jesus, into a mature Christ-like love?

Memory & Meditation Verse

You heard that I said to you, 'I go away, and I will come to you.' If you loved Me, you would have rejoiced because I go to the Father, for the Father is greater than I. John 14:28
