

“A Little Girl With a Big Heart”

Deep-Seated Resentment

- The king of Israel interpreted Naaman’s visit through the lens of _____ (v. 7).
- The Syrian Naaman _____ Israel (v. 11).
- Gehazi, the ardent Jew, was _____ that Elisha treated this Syrian kindly (v. 20).

Finding Yourself in the Story

1. The Desperate _____
We need to see ourselves as desperately _____ and in need of divine healing.
2. The Compassionate _____
We need to see our _____ as fellow humans desperately in need of God’s healing.
3. The Entitled _____
We need to speak the _____ to ourselves so we never forget God’s undeserved grace to us.

“A Little Girl With a Big Heart”

Deep-Seated Resentment

- The king of Israel interpreted Naaman’s visit through the lens of _____ (v. 7).
- The Syrian Naaman _____ Israel (v. 11).
- Gehazi, the ardent Jew, was _____ that Elisha treated this Syrian kindly (v. 20).

Finding Yourself in the Story

1. The Desperate _____
We need to see ourselves as desperately _____ and in need of divine healing.
2. The Compassionate _____
We need to see our _____ as fellow humans desperately in need of God’s healing.
3. The Entitled _____
We need to speak the _____ to ourselves so we never forget God’s undeserved grace to us.