

JOB
Bildad's Second Discourse
Job 18:1-21

1. A sober look at the plight of the _____.

a. All people are wicked by _____.

1) All have sinful _____.

"There is nothing one half so worthy of abhorrence as the human heart. God spares from all eyes but His own that _____ sight, a human heart; and could you and I but see our heart, we should be driven mad, so horrible would be the sight." - Charles Spurgeon

2) Man is deceived about the extent of his own _____.

b. Man, in his sin, does not make the most of the _____ God gives him.

1) _____ will ultimately bring the opportunities to know Him to an end.

2) _____ will waste his God-given opportunities by his own doing and be trapped in sin.

"If that which is appointed to comfort a man, turns to his _____, how great is his sorrow?" - Joseph Caryl

c. The life of sin is a life of _____ that includes an appearance before the king of terrors--death.

d. The _____ of the wicked man will be lost or spoken of with dishonor.

e. The wicked man is rightfully under the _____ of God.

2. The great hope for all wicked men is the _____ of Jesus Christ.

*"There is a remedy for man's need, as wide and broad and deep as man's disease. We need not be afraid to look at sin, and study its nature, origin, power, extent, and vileness, if we only look at the same time at the Almighty _____ provided for us in the salvation that is in Jesus Christ. Though sin has abounded, grace has much more abounded."
