

JOB
Zophar's Second Discourse
Job 20:1-29

Mac Williams, Pastor
June 10, 2012

1. Zophar's speech.

20:1-3 Zophar is greatly _____ at what Job has said and feels compelled to speak out of his great understanding.

20:4-11 Zophar says that the _____ of the wicked does not last. No matter what he accomplishes, he will perish forever.

20:12-22 The wicked are attracted to _____ and pursue it, but it does not satisfy and ultimately condemns him.

20:23-29 The wicked will not _____
the judgment of God.

"There is nothing that keeps wicked men at any one moment out of hell, but the mere pleasure of _____." - Jonathan Edwards from Sinners In
The Hands Of An Angry God

2. Two strategies of _____ and how to stand against them.

- a. Satan seeks to draw the soul toward sin by "presenting the bait and hiding the _____".

To stand against this temptation:

- 1) Keep your distance from sin; don't _____ around with it.

- 2) Remember that the "sweetness" of sin will bring bitterness of _____ and of life.

"Sin so bewitches the soul, that it makes the soul call _____ good, and good evil." - Thomas Brooks

- b. Satan seeks to entice the soul to treasure the world more than it treasures _____.

To stand against this temptation:

- 1) Recognize that the things of the world will not _____ and cannot give real joy in themselves.

"Certainly happiness lies not in those things that cannot comfort a man upon a _____ bed." - Thomas Brooks

- 2) Consider the great worth of your _____.

*"The soul of man ... is capable of union with
_____, of communion with God, and of enjoying the eternal vision of God." - Thomas Brooks*
