Closing Thought: The Apostle Paul was an example of the radical change that God brings into His people's lives. Saul was a God hater, a very religious persecutor of Christians. Then God grabbed a hold of Paul, and made him a slave of righteousness, who lived the rest of his life for the spread of the Gospel. Then he tells the church, you and I beloved, to imitate him. Are you, will you? Or are you still Saul, hating God and His church?
