

The Meal of Redemption

Exodus 12:1-13, 21-28, 43-51

25 July 2010

I. Introduction

- A. Problem
- B. Redeemer
- C. Redemption
- D. First nine plagues

II. Three sets of instructions for passover?

III. Instructions for the Passover

- A. First set: God to Moses (verses 1-13)
- B. Second set: Moses to the people (21-28; see Exodus 4:31)
- C. Third set: instructions for future observation (43-48)

IV. The meal of redemption

- A. This meal is more important and fundamental than all the other feasts and sacrifices of the Old Testament.
- B. The meal of redemption from judgment (see Exodus 4:22)
- C. The meal of redemption by a substitute
- D. The meal of redemption for all God's people
- E. The meal of redemption to go

V. What the Passover is about

- A. It's not mainly about Egypt; it's not mainly looking forward to the Lord's Supper.
- B. It's about the true substitute, Jesus Christ (see John 1:29, 36; 19:31-37; 1 Corinthians 5:7)
- C. Jesus came to be for us exactly what the sacrificial lamb seemed to be.
 - i. the offering of Christ is the reason that we can be good and just and clean in God's eyes – nothing else will do
 - ii. the offering of Christ means that we are judged like Egyptians and saved like Israelites
 - iii. the offering of Christ means that we are bound together as a people
 - iv. the offering of Christ means that we are ready to go (Romans 3:23; 6:23)