1. Paul exemplifies a genuine love for the Philippian church as _____ believers in the Lord.

- a. Believers can have true _____ in the transformation of life of fellow Christians.
- b. The Lord gives a _____ in response to the fruitful work of gospel ministry.
- c. In light of the danger of unbelief and the glorious blessing of heavenly citizenship, believers are charged to be _____ in their faith.

2. It is a great privilege and responsibility to be not only fellow believers but also fellow _____ in the cause of the gospel.

- a. It is a privilege to work together with other Christians in making the _____ known.

b. It is a responsibility for fellow workers to pursue _____-mindedness with other Christians in the Lord.

1) Be on guard against _____ the gospel message.

2) Be on guard against holding _____ which can disrupt the fellowship.

c. It is a great encouragement for believers to know that _____ of their names are written in God's eternal heavenly register.

“(It is) the book of God’s eternal purposes and decrees, divine predestination to eternal life; and this being called a _____, and the names of persons being said to be in it, denote the love of God to His elect, His care of them, His value for them, His remembrance of them, and the exact knowledge which He has of them; as well as imply, that His eternal election of them is personal and particular, is well known to Him, and is _____ and unchangeable.” - John Gill
