

PHILIPPIANS
Prayer and Peace
Philippians 4:6-7

Mac Williams, Pastor
June 10, 2018

1. Be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your _____ be made known to God.

a. Believers are commanded not to be _____ about anything.

1) Because the Lord is _____.

2) Because worry accomplishes _____.

3) Because worry focuses attention on something other than _____ in God.

b. Believers are commanded instead to take _____ of their concerns to God in prayer.

1) The Apostle Paul exemplifies the importance of regular prayer.

2) Prayerfully place your focus on the realities of _____ instead of worrying about the “what-ifs” of tomorrow.

3) Being _____ to God in prayer addresses worry and strengthens faith.

2. And the peace of God, which surpasses all comprehension, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.

a. In response to prayer, God promises to give His children His _____ that is beyond anything the world can offer.

b. In response to prayer, God promises that His peace will stand _____ over the hearts and minds of His children in Christ.
