#1 — Why has God written His Word in a way that is so difficult to understand? Why do the terms “world,” “foreknew,” and “all” have to be so complicated?

#2 — Since God “fore-loves” His elect chosen people, and He doesn’t just base His election on a foreknowledge of those who would choose Him, why doesn’t God fore-love and choose everyone?

#3 — What is the most accurate way to share the gospel in light of the truths of Reformed Theology?

#4 — How can we help children understand [the truths of Reformed Theology] early in life, in a way they can understand, so they are not surprised by these truths later in life as I have been?

#5 — Is it possible that the Lord may bring a Christian home as a result of them persisting in their sin?
