A Rescue Through Prayer

1. The violence of Herod

- A. Harassment of unknown believers
- B. Murder of James
- C. Imprisonment of Peter
- 2. The rescue from Herod
 - A. A last minute deliverance
 - B. A rescue against all odds
 - C. A dreamlike experience
 - D. After deliverance, Peter was left to his judgment
 - E. The blessing of the Fellowship
 - F. Prayers accompanied by doubt
 - G. Herod's wrath
- 3. The judgment against Herod
 - A. The backdrop to his judgment
 - B. The death of Herod

Application

- 1. Prayer is effective, and it is effective in times of crisis.
- 2. Fervency of prayer matters.
- 3. Prayer changes things, but remember, there is God's unchangeable, perfect will.
- 4. Prayer is primarily a means to change us, not a means to change God.
