Jesus:
Fountain of Living Waters

“I will be satisfied when I awake with his likeness.”

Psalm 17:15

The Context of Our this Passage

- ❖ John 3 gives the account of Jesus' interview with the Pharisee, Nicodemus. His religion was not sufficient. He needed new birth.
- ❖ John 4 gives the account of Jesus' encounter with the immoral Samaritan woman at Jacob's well. Jesus shows her she needed living water.

Jesus is the Savior who can give living water to all thirsty souls.

#1: The Fountain of Living Waters Reaches People at Their Level

“He had to pass through Samaria” (John 4:4)

#1: The Fountain of Living Waters Reaches People at Their Level

“There cometh a woman of Samaria to draw water” (4:7)

- This was unusual because she was doing it at noon
- This lady was intentionally avoiding interactions with people

#1: The Fountain of Living Waters Reaches People at Their Level

“Jesus saith unto her, Give me to drink” (4:7)

- This was shocking because Jews despised Samaritans and never talked to them
- This was shocking because in that culture men never talked to woman in public

#1: The Fountain of Living Waters Reaches People at Their Level

If you are going to be affective in Gospel conversation, you have to get into people's lives.

The background of the slide is a dark, atmospheric photograph of a manger. A white cloth is draped over a bed of straw, with some straw protruding from the edges. The lighting is low, creating a somber and intimate mood.

Jesus:

Fountain of Living Waters

#2: The Fountain of Living Waters Reaches People at the Thirst Level

“Counsel in the heart of man is like deep water; but a man of understanding will draw it out.”

Proverbs 20:5

#2: The Fountain of Living Waters Reaches People at the Thirst Level

Jesus is drawing out what she is thirsting for.

- Everyone is thirsty.
- Everyone has desires.
- Everyone is looking for something.

“If any man thirst, let him come unto me, and drink. He that believeth on me, as the Scripture has said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water.”

John 7:37-38

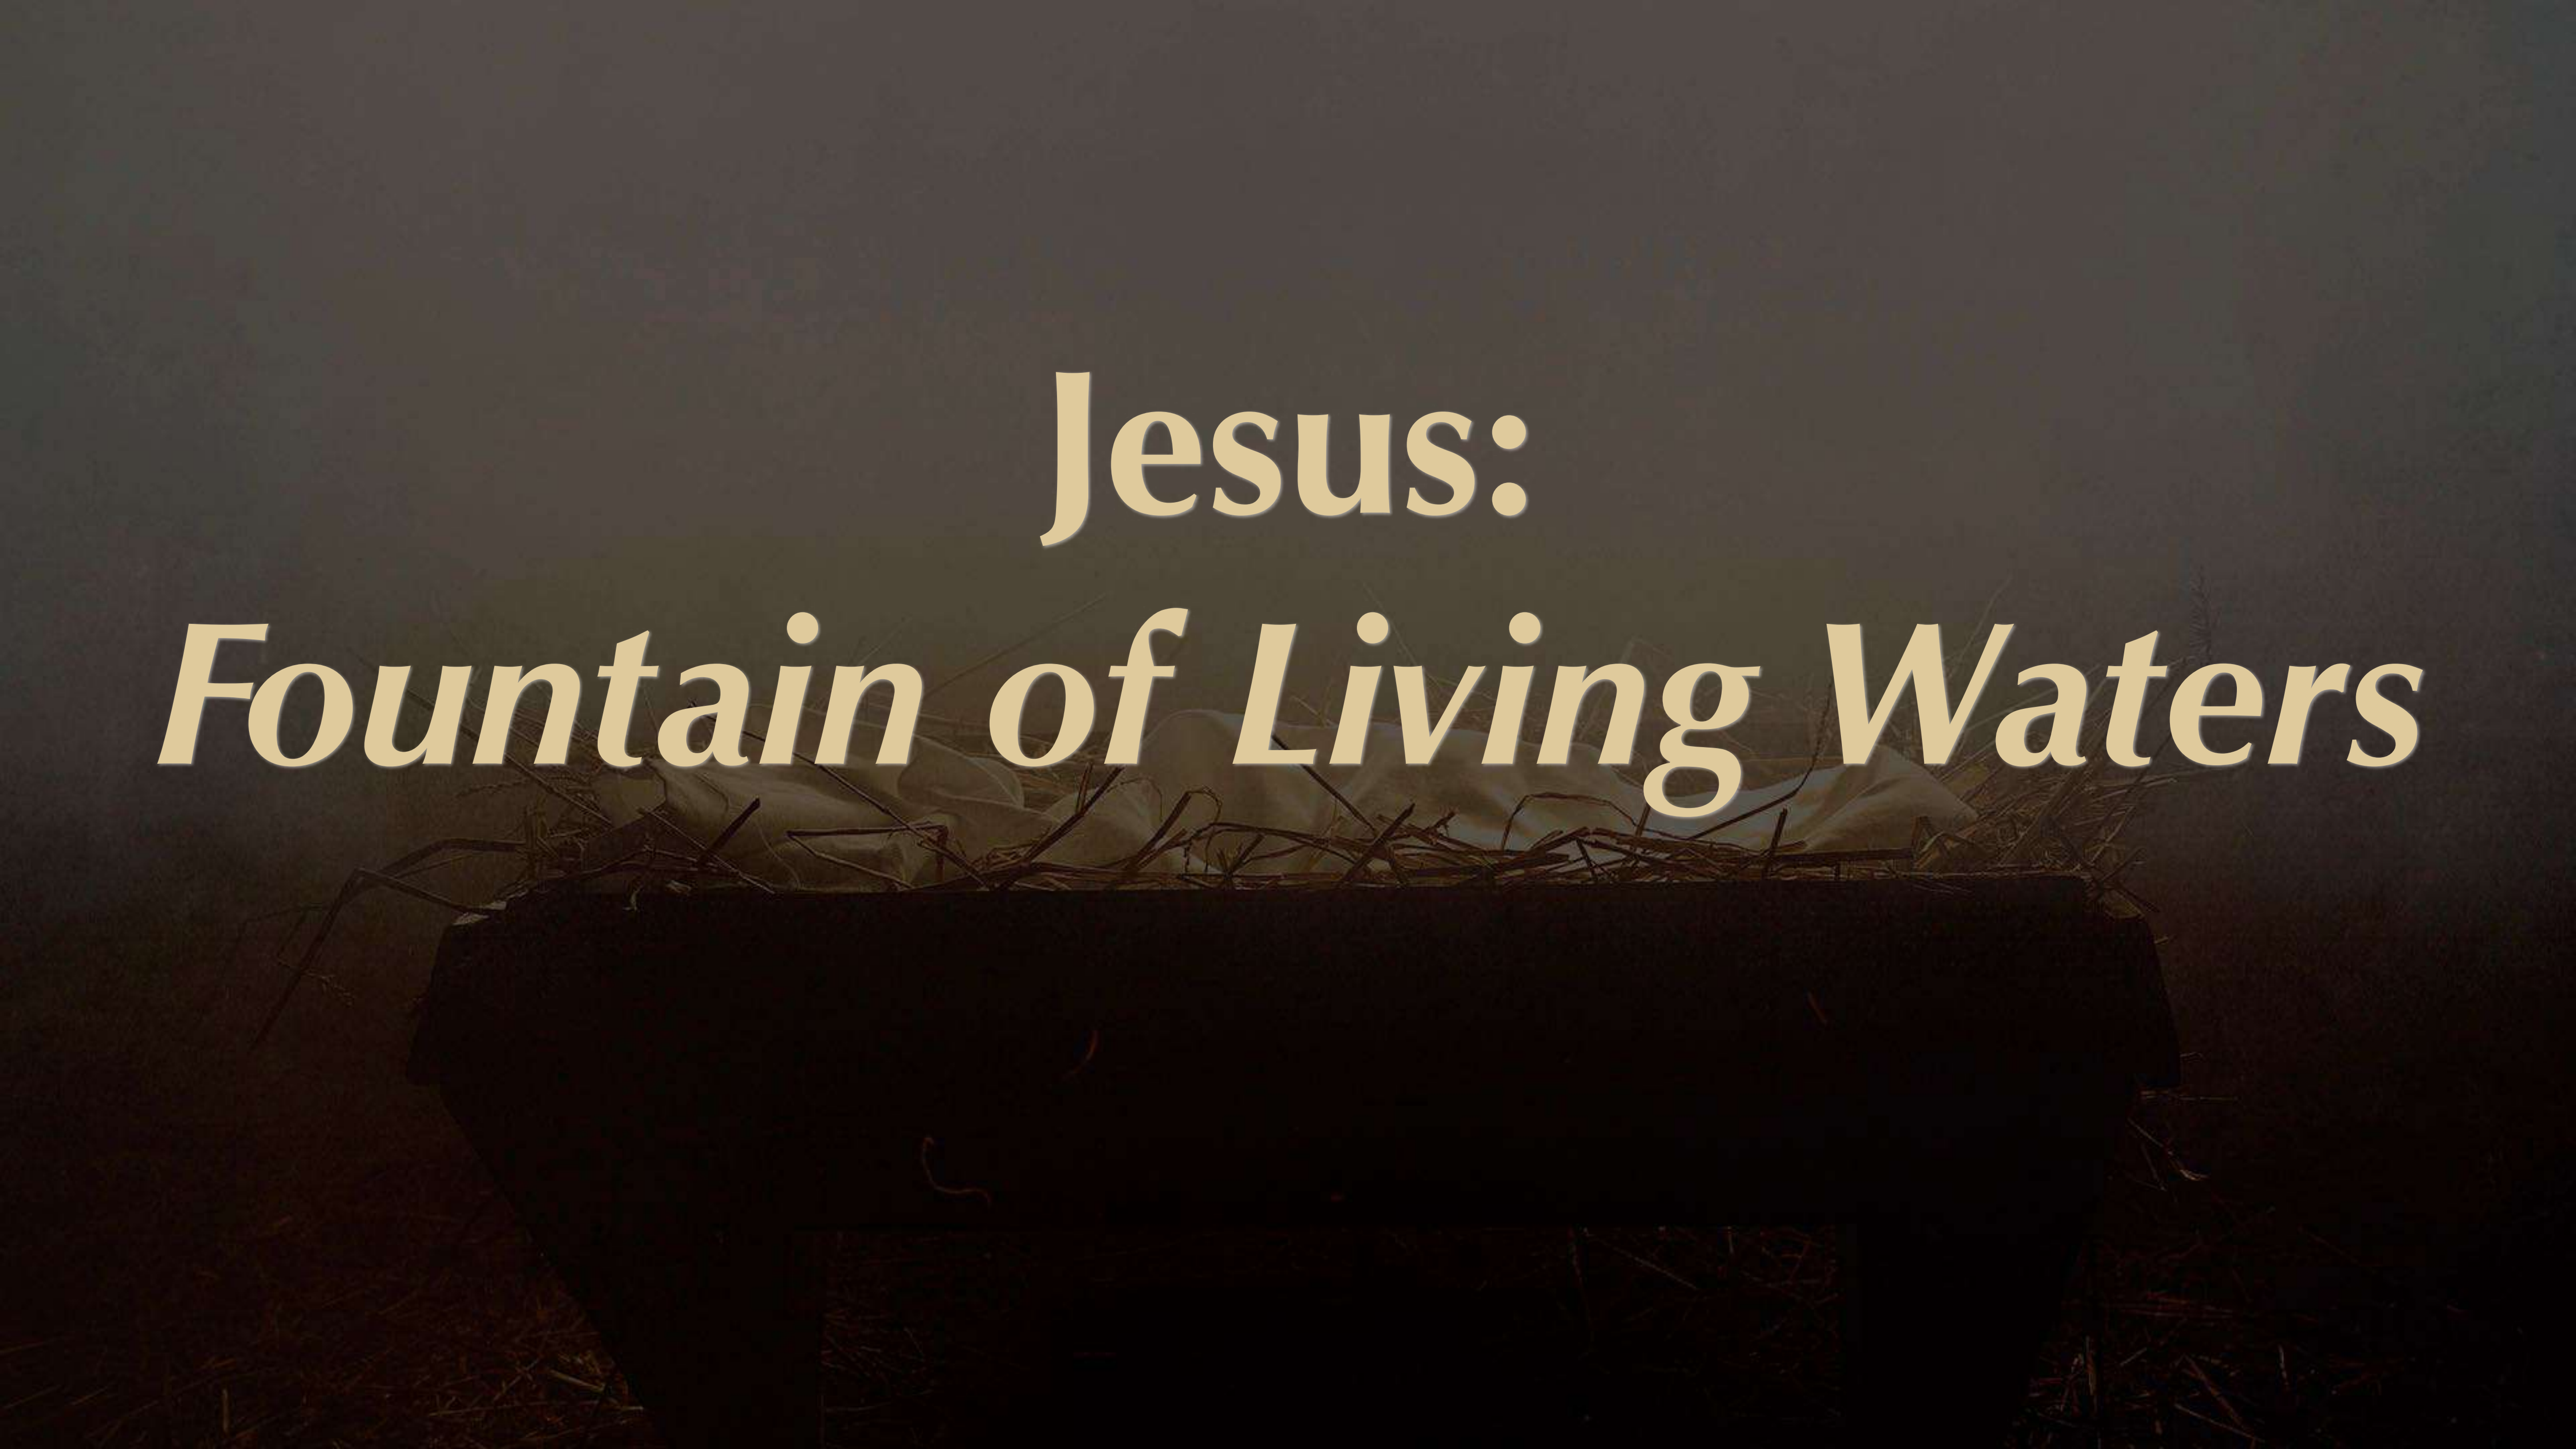

#2: The Fountain of Living Waters Reaches People at the Thirst Level

You don't understand the answer unless you understand the question.

- Jesus was not talking about the body.
- Jesus was talking about the soul.

#2: The Fountain of Living Waters Reaches People at the Thirst Level

At the point where people thirst is where Gospel conversation become the most affective form of evangelism.

Jesus:
Fountain of Living Waters
