

THE COMMANDMENT IS CLEAR (Part II) Deuteronomy 6:1-25

How do we perpetuate obedience to the Great Commandment? (Review)

1. Preachers have a great command to preach it (v.1-3).
2. Believers have a great commandment to obey (v.4-5).
3. Parents have a great responsibility to communicate (v.6-9).
4. Everyone has a great danger to defeat (v.10-19).
“Beware of blessings.”
 - a. Material blessings can cause us to forget God (v.10-12).
 - b. Material blessings can lure us to compromise with the worldly culture (v.13-15).
 - c. Material blessings can condition us to test, tempt or dare God to act (v.16-19).

5. This generation has great accountability for the next (v.20-25).
 - a. You can't plan quality time.
 - b. You can plan a quantity of time when quality time might happen.
 - c. You have limited opportunities when they are listening.
 - d. Your opportunity to teach depends on the quality of your relationship.

Do you have ears to hear? How about a heart to obey?
