

Gospel Conduct after SCOTUS

Decision

Pastor John Brackbill/Titus 3.1.11/6.28.15

1:15 pm Bible Study Hour

Fitting gospel conduct toward outsiders after the SCOTUS decision must be evident in us as citizens and neighbors (1-2)

- Fitting gospel conduct as citizens
 - Submissive: to the government
 - Obedient: to authorities
 - Serving: the community
- Fitting gospel conduct as neighbors
 - Malign no one
 - Peaceable
 - Gentle
 - Considerate

Fitting gospel conduct toward outsiders after the SCOTUS decision is grounded in God's consideration _____ (3-7)

- Because of our lost condition before salvation we must have great consideration of the lost around us (3)
 - We were ignorant of _____
 - We were enslaved to our _____
 - We were destructive in _____

- Because of God's _____ for us in salvation we must have great consideration for the lost around us (4-7)
 - The nature of our salvation
 - Brought about by Christ's appearance
 - Brought about by God's mercy
 - Brought about by the Holy Spirit
 - The result of our salvation
 - Salvation Summarized: Justification by grace
 - Result of Salvation: Heirs of eternal life

Fitting gospel conduct toward outsiders after the SCOTUS decision is produced by a focus on the profitable truths of _____ (8)

- The profitable truths of the gospel are _____
- The profitable truths of the gospel are to be _____
- The profitable words of the gospel will result in _____ in those who believe

Fitting gospel conduct toward outsiders after the SCOTUS is produced by an avoidance of the unprofitable (9-11)

- Avoid foolish _____ apart from God's Word
- Because such discussions are unprofitable and worthless