

ISAIAH
The Blessed Rule Of The Messiah
Isaiah 9:1-7

Mac Williams, Pastor
June 28, 2015

1. The _____ promised through the Messiah include light for those in darkness, joy to those in the gloom of anguish, and liberty to those who are oppressed.

2. The unmatched character of the Messiah.

a. In His humiliation, the Messiah was born as a _____.

b. In His exaltation, the Messiah is ...

1) _____ in His person, works, and sufferings.

2) A perfectly _____ counselor.

3) A real man and yet the mighty _____.

4) Eternal and the _____ of eternal life to others.

5) The only one who brings true _____.

3. The government of the Messiah.

"The Child is to be a King, a Ruler, A Sovereign. This government is the kingdom of _____, but also in widest extent the kingdom of nature and power. All the world is subject to the rule of the Child." - E.J. Young

a. Christ rules over a _____ kingdom.

b. Christ's rule begins in the _____ of men, by which He brings peace.

c. Christ is the only _____ ruler.

d. Christ's rule is characterized by _____ and righteousness.

e. Christ's kingdom is an _____ kingdom.

f. God is zealously _____ to bringing the government of Christ into reality.