1. God has enabled His servants to not only see the wonder in His Word but to also make application in their lives.

- a. The testimonies of the Lord are full of _____ in the nature of what they are and the effects they produce.
- b. The unfolding of the wonderful words of God give life changing illumination to those who _____ receive it.
- c. When the wonderful character of God's testimonies enlightens a believer, their _____ for His word increases.

2. The wonderful words of Scripture give God's servants insight, direction, and confidence to bring bold petitions to their God.

- a. In prayer, God's servants can ask Him to graciously give them His _____ attention.

- b. In prayer, God's servants can ask Him to give them _____ in their life and conduct so that sin will not rule over them.

- c. In prayer, God's servants can ask to be delivered from the _____ of evil men to have greater freedom for obedience.

- d. In prayer, God's servants can ask for God's favor to _____ them with greater understanding of His statutes.

3. God gives His servants deep concern for the glory of His name and for the _____ unbelievers will face for their sin.

"There is nothing for which we should be excited to deeper emotion in respect to our fellow men than for the fact that they are violators of the law of God, and exposed to its _____ penalty."

- Albert Barnes
