

GOSPEL OF MARK

The Character of Jesus and the Needs of Man

Mark 3:1-12

Mac Williams, Pastor

June 23, 2013

1. Jesus is angry and grieved toward the _____ hearted.

a. To be hard hearted is to be so calloused by _____ and unbelief that you cannot see the truth.

b. Jesus expresses righteous _____ at persistent sin.

c. Jesus is deeply _____ at hardness of heart.

"It is a great grief to our Lord Jesus to see sinners bent upon their own ruin, and obstinately set against the methods of their conviction and recovery, for He would not that any should perish. This is a good reason why the hardness of our own hearts and of the hearts of others, should be a _____ to us."

- Matthew Henry

2. Jesus is full of compassion to those in _____.

a. Jesus does _____ and not harm to those in need.

b. Jesus is _____ with those who come to Him for help.

3. Jesus can deliver those who are in bondage to _____.

a. Satan and his demons must _____ to the authority of Jesus Christ.

b. Jesus can _____ those whose lives are dominated by sin and Satan.
