

“Egypt Compared to Assyria’s Greatness”
Ezekiel 31

- I. Ezekiel cites a metaphor for the _____
of Pharaoh (Ezekiel 31).
- a. God uses Assyria, a world power for three _____, as a point of comparison for Pharaoh to consider (31:2b-3).
  - b. Note the _____ attributes that describe Syria’s strength and power (31:4-9).
- II. The greatness of Assyria takes a turn for the worse.
- a. Assyria will fall because it is _____ (31:10-11).
  - b. When the mighty fall, many _____ and are reminded of man’s mortality and accountability to God (31:12-18).

Proverbs 8:13; 11:2; Job 42:5-6

Romans 3:19-22; Philippians 3:8-10