

Palmetto Baptist Church – June 4, 2017

Bittersweet – Revelation 10:1-11

Inside the Text:

I. The interlude – God cares about you.

A. God understands your challenges.

B. God knows your questions.

II. The interaction – God offers you a relationship with Him that is real and personal.

A. A conversation took place between John and God. (1, 4, 8)

B. The conversation involved a mighty angel. (1-7)

C. The conversation involved a mini-scroll. (8-11)

III. The interpretation – God is working out His plan to receive glory through your life.

A. Some truth was meant to be concealed. (1-7)

B. Other truth was meant to be revealed. (8-11)

Apply the Text:

- The interlude – God cares about you.

- Trust Him with the unknown.
- Cast your burden upon Him.

- The interaction – God offers you a relationship that is real and personal.

- Begin a relationship with God.
- Repair your relationship with God.
- Strengthen your relationship with God.

- The interpretation – God is working out His plan to receive glory through your life.

- Look forward to eternity.
- Invite others to join you by becoming rightly reconciled to Him through Jesus.