#455 And Can It Be That I Should Gain

God Declares His Will for Our Lives

1 Peter 1:13-25

Confessing Our Sin to God

Our gracious God and heavenly Father, with heavy hearts we acknowledge our sin before you this morning. You have been so kind toward us, multiplying grace and peace through your Son, the Lord Jesus Christ. By your mercy you have given us a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus from the dead, an unfading inheritance kept in heaven for us. In Christ you grant us inexpressible joy, for through him we are receiving the goal of our faith, the salvation of our souls.

And yet, we have not prepared our minds for action, nor have we behaved as obedient children. We have not rejected the ways of this world and our passions have ruled us. Though you set us apart for your service by the Spirit, we have not been holy as you are holy. Our souls are not clean of all impurity by obedience to the truth, and our lack of sincere love for others betrays the true condition of our hearts.

Dear God, our hope rests in Jesus, for we trust that he bore our sins in his body on the cross. Forgive us for his sake, consider us clean through the sprinkling of the blood of his sacrifice for us. Remind us always that we have been purchased from an empty way of life by the staggering price of Christ's very blood. And, though we do not yet see Jesus as we will at his glorious return, grant us to love him and believe in him always. We ask these things in his name. Amen.

God Speaks through His Word

1 John 5:6-11

⁶This is he who came by water and blood—Jesus Christ; not by the water only but by the water and the blood. And the Spirit is the one who testifies, because the Spirit is the truth. ⁷For there are three that testify: ⁸the Spirit and the water and the blood; and these three agree. ⁹If we receive the testimony of men, the testimony of God is greater, for this is the testimony of God that he has borne concerning his Son. ¹⁰Whoever believes in the Son of God has the testimony in himself. Whoever does not believe God has made him a liar, because he has not believed in the testimony that God has borne concerning his Son. ¹¹And this is the testimony, that God gave us eternal life, and this life is in his Son.

"God's Testimony Concerning His Son"

June 5, 2022

When all is said and done, how do you know what to believe about Jesus, especially considering past and present misrepresentations of him? (5:6)

God provides three agreeing witnesses to confirm your faith that Jesus is uniquely qualified to be your Savior. (5:6-9)

The testimony of God resonates in the soul of the redeemed but is rejected by the unbeliever. (5:10)

Only through Jesus, the Christ come in the flesh, the very Son of God, can any man, woman or child have eternal life. (5:11)
