Almighty God and Everlasting Father, only begotten Son, eternal Spirit, you are present, you are just, you are good. Thank you for gathering us this morning. Thank you for revealing yourself to us this morning. Thank you for allowing us to sing your praises & look into your perfect Word. We confess our weary and faint hearts. We confess our dread and despair, our doubt and grumbling. Grant us faith this morning, LORD, that we might trust your good providence and rejoice in your constant provision for us. We ask these things in the name & power and majesty of Jesus Christ our LORD. Amen & Amen.
