

Burning It Down with Lies

(June 9, 2023)

It has become obvious to thinking people that powerful people are determined to burn down and "reset" the current global system. They are doing this using the Hegelian Dialectic. This is when a powerful group of people have an agenda they want put into place. In order to do this, they a) cause a problem. This is followed by b) funding the reaction they want to see, and c) mandating the solution (usually based on people's fear of something).

A reader sent me a link to a Zero Hedge article in which the author interviewed economic analyst, John Rubino. [1] One of the things Rubino states is that people in power behind the politicians or people up front that we see, intend to "burn it down" or destroy it completely and their agents like John Kerry and hundreds of others are doing the grunt work to make it happen.

The power elite (a term coined by author Dennis L. Cuddy), are mainly using climate change, systemic racism (perpetrated only by white people apparently), and the use of accidents to wreak havoc on the world. This is forcing global society toward major change.

The CV plandemic was used as an excuse to shut down the world's economy and literally imprison people in their homes. Coupled with this we're the thousands of mysterious fires that destroyed food processing plants and/or farm animal facilities. Then came the apparent need for WWII aka Russia against Ukraine, which is still being pushed.

Along with this, the world has experienced crop shortages/failures, fertilizer shortages and animal cullings. Now, we hear warnings of more diseases coming our way that will - we are told - quite possibly leave millions dead in their wake. Interestingly enough, more articles are stating the medical community is simply baffled...baffled I tell ya, at the many new incidents of hospitalizations occurring now that are stretching the medical community to its tearing point. Apparently nothing like this has occurred even during CV.

On top of all this, they're coming for the cows, under cover of "climate change.". In Ireland, apparently, 200,000 cows will need to be culled to help save the planet. John Kerry is bringing the battle cry to the USA and soon we can expect demands, mandates and laws by bureaucrats to cattle farmers that they need to start culling their cows. If they don't willingly, I'm sure they'll be forced to do so, through more feed shortages and/or more explosions at cow facilities.

John Kerry's dour expression tells us he is very concerned about climate change. The facts on the other hand, speak against Kerry. One study recently completed at UC Davis California proved that "...the global warming potential (GWP) of lab-cultured beef would be approximately 25% greater than conventional beef cows raised on farms." [2] We're not even talking about how bad lab grown meat is for human consumption. The entire production process releases far more carbon than a cow in a grass pasture eating, farting and pooping. In fact, grass fed cows in a nice roomy pasture are better for the environment than the so-called confined feeding operations I saw so often in California right near the 99 or I-5. Those cows live in their own manure, with hardly any shade or room to move and due to a lack of trees, shade and grass, temperatures are much hotter than normal actual pastures. It's all about climate change though, doncha know?

But wait! There's more! To make matters worse, the recent elimination of the debt ceiling in the USA, will put more pressure on the current fragile economy, resulting in a potential default and crash. If it happens, we can expect truly hyper-inflation. But all of this plays into the goal to reconfigure the world's economy so that there is no other choice except a mandatory digital ID and digital currency, which will provide absolute control over all of humanity. Gosh, who wouldn't want that? Me and probably you.

But underneath all of this is the complete decline in America's foundational moral code. Tucker Carlson, in his second video episode on Twitter, outlines it beautifully and accurately. Take the time to watch the twelve minute segment. [3] America is falling and it's due to a complete shift in morality where truth is seen as falsehood and falsehood is seen as truth (Isaiah 5:20).

Author Daymond Duck notes that things may be starting to come to pass with respect to Revelation 13. [4] For instance, he says the following must be in place by the time the things in Revelation 13 (mark of the beast), are in place:

- a one global power
- a one global false religious system
- a major global population reduction
- a one global marking system
- a one global economic system

It's easy to think that the things listed above will simply appear out of nowhere during the Tribulation. In reality, there must be a process that paves the way for these things allowing them to come into existence over time and that process seems to be occurring now. I'm currently discussing this possibility in my Rethinking Revelation 6 series. [5]

Globalists seem to have reached a point where they refuse to reduce pressure on society, in spite of the growing push back they're receiving. They are also ensuring a reset by overwhelming global society with one problem after another.

We can expect a good deal more global and economic upheaval in the remaining months of 2023 and into 2024. Some of those things might include (but not be limited to):

- churches continuing to reject biblical truth
- super hyper-inflation
- rising unemployment
- another residential and/or commercial real estate crisis

- extreme shortages
- more p(l)andemics
- more wars
- huge increase in deaths related to the CV jab (but never admitted by medical complex) and from wars
- greater surveillance and loss of privacy of society through continued digitalization of passports, currency and more
- greater control of society
- more 15-minute cities
- more canceling of our rights
- increasingly treating Christians and conservatives as the enemy

Consider the absolute blasphemous shenanigans happening at churches like Bethel, where recently a woman worship "pastor" stated that Jesus has reflectors in His armpits that bounces our praise from Him right back to us, which she says she learned from a "vision" and admits nothing like that is in Scripture. [6] What kind of lunacy is that? I don't even know how to respond to statements she makes, but what's more concerning are the folks who hear it and go, "Wow, that is SO cool!" The guy interviewing her is as bad as she is because there is absolutely no discernment between either of them as he glibly accepts what she says as truth. Discernment is certainly dying and for many, it seems already dead.

People are walking through life blind to what Satan is creating and we know his house is built on lies because that's his native tongue (John 8:44). I guess this should not surprise me, but it still does. According to Scripture, there will come a time in global society where the world will become one ideologically and religiously, which means a cooperative global turning away from God and His truth to deliberately embrace satanic error (2 Thess 2:11; 2 Timothy 4:3).

The religion of the future will be a form of New Age on steroids and will be fed by feelings. Nothing will be off limits (except Christianity and conservatism). It will include all forms of abysmally immoral and hedonistic pleasures and practices. The door to transgenderism is opening wide now. Next and last on the agenda is legalizing pedophilia.

I was recently at my local big box hardware store. I happened to see one worker up front near the cash registers wearing a dress, heels, full make-up, long hair, etc. Appeared to be a man who thinks he is now a woman. I've never seen a woman wear a dress at this type of store. Never. Seems like someone is trying really hard to be noticed, but don't laugh, don't say anything because you'll be transphobic. Years ago this person would've been directed to a mental facility for help. Today they are lionized as "brave."

On a related note, reader sent me an article about a gynecologist who posted on Twitter that Dylan Mulvaney is in fact, a woman. The doctor got major push back but then stated, "Not all CIS woman have a cervix." CIS means a biological woman who identifies as a woman. What she left out was the fact that biological women who do not have a cervix have had a hysterectomy. Why bother with that fact? Folks, chromosomes don't lie.

How is the world today not like the days of Noah and Lot as Jesus warned in His Olivet Discourse of Matthew 24, Mark 13 and Luke 21? This cannot be intelligently disputed though attempts to do exist. The world has regressed to the most mind-numbingly vapid beliefs and declarations because they have no love of the truth and in fact, refused the truth (2 Thessalonians 2:9–12). The reason they don't love the truth is due to the fact that they do not have any fear of God whatsoever (Psalms 36:1).

However, Christians can overcome this. I don't mean we can change society. I mean we can change ourselves; how we think, and how the evil in the world affects us. In fact, we are supposed to make every effort to do just that, while still taking a position of trying to reach the lost of this world.

Let me leave you with two portions of Scripture. Psalms 86:11 is a powerful verse. It's simple to memorize and very profound. Give ear.

Teach me your ways, O Lord. I will walk in your truth. Unite my heart to fear your Name.

The reality is that too often today, even Christians have no real fear of the Lord. We do not sit in awe of Him. We do not react as David, Daniel, Ezekiel, Isaiah, Peter, John the apostle or many others did in Scripture when they came face to face with God (they normally fell over as though dead or at least wanted to hide themselves from Him). We are way too familiar with Him, bringing Him down to our level, taking Him for granted. Our whole life daily should be about Him teaching us His ways and then walking in those ways. We need hearts and minds that are united in one purpose - living in fear (of offending) His Name. If we lived like that, we would be far different people. Our impact on the world might not be that much different, but our outlook would improve in a major way.

The other Scripture is Psalms 37:1-5. Please take the time to read through it because those verses speak of how God laughs at evil people. He will put them away to be gone forever, one day. Whether they think so or not, they are powerless against Him.

We need to adopt God's perspective, making it our own. Though difficult to accomplish, this is the victory over the world and what Satan is attempting to accomplish.

Thanks for joining me today and until we meet again I pray that God would open your eyes to show you how blessed you are in Him!

[1] <https://www.zerohedge.com/markets/rubino-warns-theyre-willing-burn-down-world-get-what-they-want>

[2] <https://twitter.com/TuckerCarlson/status/1666928190445477890?cxt=HHwWhiCzmfCWj6luAAAA>

[3] <https://healthimpactnews.com/2023/lab-grown-meat-is-it-a-pharmaceutical-product-or-a-food-product/>

[4] <https://grandmageri422.me/2023/05/28/beginning-to-come-to-pass-by-daymond-duck/>

[5] <https://studygrowknowblog.com/2023/06/02/rethinking-revelation-6-part-1/>

[6] https://disntr.com/2023/06/07/bethel-pastor-says-jesus-has-reflectors-in-his-armpits-that-reflects-our-praise-back-onto-us/?w3tc_note=flush_all