Closing Thought: As the miraculously newly sighted man witnessed to these powerful, learned men, he continued to tell the Truth. He did not waver, or back down in the face of danger. As he was being reviled, mocked and disbelieved, he stood bold as a lion (Proverbs 28:1), telling the Truth as he was losing his life for the sake of Christ. We too, Beloved, are miraculously sighted and must tell the Truth and stand as bold as lions.
