

The Life and Ministry of John Owen (1616-83)

---

John Owen (1616-83)

King James I (c1620)

John Owen (1616-83)

St. John the Baptist Church, Stadham. John Owen was born in Stadham, Oxfordshire in 1616.

John Owen (1616-83)

Charles I (1600-1649) became King of England, Ireland, and Scotland in 1625. John Owen was nine years old at this time.

John Owen (1616-83)

John Owen and his brother William studied at Queen's College, Oxford

John Owen (1616-83)

Christ Church, Oxford.

John Owen (1616-83)

Christ Church (interior), Oxford.
John Owen was ordained a deacon here in the mid-1630's.

John Owen (1616-83)

Sir Robert Dormer, Earl of Carnarvon, Viscount Ascot.

John Owen (1616-83)

Lord John Lovelace.

John Owen (1616-83)

The Long Parliament which began in 1640 called the meeting of the Westminster Assembly; the Assembly took place mainly during the 1640's (1643-1652); during the winters they met in the Jerusalem Chamber of Westminster Abbey.

John Owen (1616-83)

London in 1616; it would have looked much like this when John Owen arrived in 1642.

VISSCHER'S VIEW OF LONDON, 1616

John Owen (1616-83)

All Saints Church, Fordham,
Essex. Owen served as a parish minister here from 1643-46.

John Owen (1616-83)

John Owen served as minister at Coggleshall Church between 1646-1652.

John Owen (1616-83)

The execution of King Charles I on the cold morning of January 30th, 1649.

John Owen (1616-83)

With the execution of Charles I in 1649, Oliver Cromwell (1599-1658), the general of the New Model Army (Parliamentary Army), rose into increasing political prominence.

John Owen (1616-83)

In 1650 Scotland was rapidly raising an army. The leaders of the English Commonwealth government felt threatened and on 22 July the New Model Army under Oliver Cromwell invaded Scotland.

John Owen (1616-83)

Christ Church, Oxford; John Owen returns as Dean and then also Vice-Chancellor in 1651.

John Owen (1616-83)

A portrait of John Owen during his period as Dean at Christ Church, Oxford.

John Owen (1616-83)

Oliver Cromwell struggled under the massive weight of what increasingly became personal rule over England, aging quickly.

Charles II

Charles II (1630-1685)

John Owen (1616-83)

St. John the Baptist Church,
Stadham. John Owen comes back to minister in Stadham,
Oxfordshire between 1660-62.

John Owen (1616-83)

Owen returned to minister in house churches in and around London through the latter years of his ministry.

John Owen (1616-83)

John Owen's 1668 portrait by John Greenhill (National Portrait Gallery, London, UK).

John Owen (1616-83)

John Owen's grave at Bunhill
Fields Burial Ground, Greater London.

John Owen (1616-83)

The first volume of the collected works of John Owen.

