

“Life in the Resurrection”
Matthew 22:23-33

- I. The Sadducees seek to confront Jesus’s with a quandary that, if true, would prove Jesus wrong on the matter of _____ (22:23-27).
- a. The question involves the Torah command for brothers to provide offspring to their brother’s _____, also known as a “Levirate Marriage” (cf. Deuteronomy 25:5-10).

Genesis 38:8-10; Ruth 4:7-9

- b. The Sadducees seek to illustrate _____ by presenting absurd-but-not-impossible hypothetical circumstances (22:28).

Matthew 7:13-14, Isaiah 26:19; Daniel 12:2; Job 19:25-27

- II. Jesus declares the Sadducees _____ - _____ and _____ of the Scriptures (22:29).
- a. First, Jesus declares believers to be “like _____” in the resurrection (22:30).

Acts 23:8; 1 Corinthians 15:42-49

- b. Second, Jesus explains their failure to read the Scriptures, which records _____ spoken by God after the deaths of the patriarchs, actively identifying Him as their God in the present (22:31-33).

Hebrews 11:13

“Life in the Resurrection”
Matthew 22:23-33

- I. The Sadducees seek to confront Jesus’s with a quandary that, if true, would prove Jesus wrong on the matter of _____ (22:23-27).
- a. The question involves the Torah command for brothers to provide offspring to their brother’s _____, also known as a “Levirate Marriage” (cf. Deuteronomy 25:5-10).

Genesis 38:8-10; Ruth 4:7-9

- b. The Sadducees seek to illustrate _____ by presenting absurd-but-not-impossible hypothetical circumstances (22:28).

Matthew 7:13-14, Isaiah 26:19; Daniel 12:2; Job 19:25-27

- II. Jesus declares the Sadducees _____ - _____ and _____ of the Scriptures (22:29).
- a. First, Jesus declares believers to be “like _____” in the resurrection (22:30).

Acts 23:8; 1 Corinthians 15:42-49

- b. Second, Jesus explains their failure to read the Scriptures, which records _____ spoken by God after the deaths of the patriarchs, actively identifying Him as their God in the present (22:31-33).

Hebrews 11:13