CHAPTER 7 of
LIVE NOT BY LIES, Rod Dreher (pages 129-150)
“FAMILIES ARE RESISTANCE CELLS”

Has the author demonstrated to you that soft totalitarianism exists?

If yes, how has he demonstrated it and how does it affect you?

If no, do you believe that it does not exist or do you think the author has just not done a good job of presenting his view?

Do you see the need for resistance to soft totalitarianism?

Are you willing to take steps to develop that resistance?

In the Christian model, marriage and family offer three gifts that are urgently needed for believers struggling with a totalitarian order. What are they? Discuss what is meant by them.

The first is the fruitful f_____ of l_____

The second is the gift of f_____

The third is the d_____ of the i_____ the family fellowship

How has the left wing assault on traditional marriage and family commenced in the west and what must be done to halt it making further progress? (pp 132-134)

[OVER]

Under the general category of “A Benda Guide to Child-Raising” the author offered several things families can do to become resistance cells. What are they? (pp. 135-150)
