

ISAIAH

His Hand Is Still Stretched Out Isaiah 9:8-10:4

“Those who decline to respond to God’s goodness by repentance, and faith, and trust, and submission to His will, cannot wonder or complain if sooner or later the tokens of goodness are _____, the opportunity of benefiting from them ends, and retribution supervenes.” - J.I. Packer

*“God’s wrath in the Bible is never the capricious, self-indulgent, irritable, morally ignoble thing that human anger so often is. It is, instead, a right and necessary reaction to objective moral evil. God is only _____ where anger is called for.”
- J.I. Packer*

1. God’s anger is stretched out toward _____ and arrogance of heart.

“Boasting and vaunting, the people think that they have the _____ of the situation in their own hands. They refuse to acknowledge that things are in God’s hands.” - E.J. Young

2. God’s anger is stretched out toward those who will not repent and honor the Lord in their _____.

3. God’s anger is stretched out to those who live in sin such that their _____ are consumed by their sin.

“They do not consider that their own sins are the fans by which (God’s wrath) is inflamed, and that those sins supply the _____, and that even themselves are consumed by the inward fire of their crimes.” - John Calvin

4. God’s anger is stretched out to those who make and enforce _____ in unrighteous ways.

Three questions:

What will you do in that _____?

To _____ will you flee for help?

What will you do with the _____ in which you are now boasting?
