1. Believers are helped by knowing for sure that God is righteous.

“Righteousness is God’s perfect conformity to His own intrinsic moral nature, which compels Him to always uphold the worth of His glory and to act for His glory. God is righteous in His being. God is righteous in His _____ . God’s righteousness is both who He is and what He does.” - Brian Borgman

2. Believers are helped by knowing that God is righteous in all that He does.

- a. The doctrine of providence is based on the fact that God alone has the right as well as the qualifications to _____ the world.

“All the designs of providence are ultimately for the good of the _____.” - Stephen Charnock

- b. Since God is righteous, His Word can be fully trusted.

1) The Word of God is thoroughly tested and _____.

2) The Word of God is _____ righteous.

3) The Word of God is _____.

3. Believers are helped in the difficult trials that God providentially brings into their life. They trust in their righteous God through faith in His righteous Word.

- a. Believers can be discouraged because their adversaries _____ God’s Word.

But ... they remember that God’s Word has proven to be trustworthy so they love it.

- b. Believers can be discouraged because they are regarded with contempt.

But ... they do not forget the Scriptures, remembering that His righteousness is not _____ but everlasting.

- c. Believers can be discouraged because of outward trouble and inward turmoil.

But ... they _____ in God’s commandments and trust Him for further understanding for their life.
