

“A Rebellious Son’s End”

2 Samuel 17:24 – 18:18

- I. Still not knowing the mind of God, David establishes a _____ position (cf. 18:8) and Gentile vassals pay their _____ to David (17:24-29).

- II. David _____ his forces and heeds the advice of others to remain out of the battle given that he is the prime target (8:1-4).

- III. David _____ his rebellious son, but God _____ that son from a tree (8:5-9).

- IV. Joab debates with a soldier for not _____ Absalom and supervises the deed himself (18:10-15).

- V. The men bury Absalom in the way _____ were buried (18:16-18).

Matthew 22:37-40

“A Rebellious Son’s End”

2 Samuel 17:24 – 18:18

- I. Still not knowing the mind of God, David establishes a _____ position (cf. 18:8) and Gentile vassals pay their _____ to David (17:24-29).

- II. David _____ his forces and heeds the advice of others to remain out of the battle given that he is the prime target (8:1-4).

- III. David _____ his rebellious son, but God _____ that son from a tree (8:5-9).

- IV. Joab debates with a soldier for not _____ Absalom and supervises the deed himself (18:10-15).

- V. The men bury Absalom in the way _____ were buried (18:16-18).

Matthew 22:37-40