1. The _____ of the Servant in Isaiah.

a. The Servant of God is presented as One whose work is more important than that of _____ and far superior to any false god.

b. The Servant of God speaks of the corporate identity of the _____ and His people.

“By the servant of Jehovah in these Later Prophecies of Isaiah, we are to understand the church with its Head, or rather the Messiah with the _____ which is His body, sent by Jehovah to reclaim the world from its apostasy and ruin.” - J.A. Alexander

2. The relationship of the Servant of God with God the _____.

a. The Servant of God is _____ by the Father in all He does.

b. The Servant of God is set apart for a particular work and is the _____ of the Father.

c. The Father sends the _____ to anoint the Servant of God for His work.

3. The character of the Servant of God’s ministry.

a. The Servant of God is to bring forth true gospel religion to the _____.

“Christ was sent to in order to bring the whole world under the authority of God and obedience to Him; and this shows that without Him everything is confused and _____.” - John Calvin

b. The Servant of God would not use His voice to call attention to His own _____, but to serve others.

c. The Servant of God deals _____ with those who are weak and oppressed.

d. The Servant of God will not _____ to complete His work though there is great opposition.
