DALLAS REFORMED PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

That in all things He might have the preeminence

A congregation of the Reformed Presbyterian Church of North America (RPCNA)

*Let my cry come near before thee, O LORD:
Give me understanding according to thy word.*

*Let my supplication come before thee:
Deliver me according to thy word.*

*My lips shall utter praise,
When thou hast taught me thy statutes.*

PSALM 119:169-171

The believer first gives themselves to the Lord and second to His Bride, the Church

- I. Giving yourself: the context

- II. Giving yourself: first to the Lord

- III. Giving yourself: second to the Church

CONFESSION OF FAITH XXVII: OF THE CHURCH

II. The visible church, which is also catholic or universal under the Gospel, (not confined to one nation, as before under the law,) consists of all those throughout the world that profess the true religion, together with their children; and is the kingdom of the Lord Jesus Christ; the house and family of God, out of which there is no ordinary possibility of salvation.

III. Unto this catholic visible church Christ hath given the ministry, oracles, and ordinances of God, for the gathering and perfecting of the saints in this life, to the end of the world; and doth by his own presence and Spirit, according to his promise, make them effectual thereunto.

CONFESSION OF FAITH I: OF THE HOLY SCRIPTURE

I. Although the light of nature, and the works of creation and providence, do so far manifest the goodness, wisdom, and power of God, as to leave men inexcusable; yet they are not sufficient to give that knowledge of God, and of his will, which is necessary unto salvation: therefore it pleased the Lord, at sundry times, and in divers manners, to reveal himself, and to declare that his will unto his church; and afterwards, for the better preserving and propagating of the truth, and for the more sure establishment and comfort of the Church against the corruption of the flesh, and the malice of Satan and of the world, to commit the same wholly unto writing; which maketh the holy scripture to be most necessary; those former ways of God's revealing his will unto his people being now ceased.
