

Jesus: Reigning Lord and Christ

Pastor John Brackbill/Acts 2:25-36/7.19.15

10:45 am Morning Worship Service

Death could not hold Jesus in its power because David prophesied about certain _____ for the Messiah (25-35)

- David prophesied that the messiah would be _____ from the dead and _____ forever on His throne (25-32)
 - David's prophecy in Psalm _____ (25-28)
 - The messiah would know God's _____ of blessing (25)
 - Which would result in joy and hope (27-28)
 - Hope because God would _____ the Messiah from the dead (27)
 - Hope because God would make known the ways of life to the Messiah (28a)
 - Hope because God would make the Messiah full of gladness in His presence (28b)
 - Peter's inspired interpretation of David's prophecy (29-32)
 - David had to be speaking of the Messiah's future resurrection because we know where _____ is to this day (29)
 - David as a prophet connected the _____ God gave to him with the messiah's future resurrection (30-31)

- _____ was raised from the dead (32)
 - _____ raised Jesus from the dead
 - The apostles were _____ of the resurrection
- David also prophesied that the Messiah would be exalted to the Father's right hand to reign (33-35)
 - Jesus was exalted to the Father's right hand (33a)
 - Jesus received from the Father the _____ to give to His followers (33b)
 - _____ brought the events of Pentecost about (33c)
 - Jesus not David ascended into heaven as the _____ fulfilling Scripture (34-35)

Therefore Jesus who was crucified and raised from the dead is both _____ and _____ (36)

- The house of Israel can be confident about the identity of the One they crucified
- Through Christ's resurrection and ascension God displayed Jesus as Lord
- Through Christ's resurrection and ascension God displayed Jesus as Messiah