1. The scribes wickedly charged that Jesus was indwelt by and in league with _____.

a. Jesus could not be indwelt by Satan because He is the S_____ One and is empowered by the Holy Spirit.

b. Jesus could not be in league with Satan because that would mean Satan was fighting against _____.

2. A central theme to Jesus ministry is that He would thoroughly defeat Satan and then _____ him.

"The heart of Jesus' mission is to confront Satan and to _____ him on all fields, and in the fulfillment of His task He is conscious of being the agent of irresistible power." - William Lane

a. Jesus Christ clearly asserted that during His _____ ministry He was binding Satan.

b. Jesus Christ _____ bound Satan at His death and resurrection.

"Satan is bound 'that he should deceive the _____ no more'; Christ claimed 'all authority' that He might 'disciple the nations.' Any non-Jew who knows Christ as Savior is testimony to this grand fact." - Kenneth Gentry

3. Jesus bound Satan in order to _____ his house.

a. Satan is being progressively deprived of his " _____ " as people from all nations are converted by the gospel.

b. Satan is progressively defeated in the _____ of Christians as they stand firm against him based on Christ's finished work.
